HOUSE NOW HAS
SCOTT'S LIQUOR BILL

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 8.—The Scott bill providing for the abolition of the liquor traffic in the Territory of Hawaii has been referred to the House Committee on Judiciary. Representative Scott, the father of the bill, stated today that he will make a motion to have the bill transferred to the Committee on Territories for consideration.

LANGFORD IS EASY.

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 8.—Jim Flynn, "the Los Angeles fireman," tonight got the decision over Sam Langford in a bout before the Pacific Athletic Club, under the management of Tom McCarey.

Johnson had the fight of his life in securing a fifteen-round decision over Langford.

BUDGET FOR JAPAN ASSURED.

TOKYO, Feb. 8.—The passage of the budget is now assured. A compromise has been reached between the opposing factions, and in consideration of the reduction of the land tax by $4,000,000 the passage of the budget will not be opposed.

SEATTLE NOMINATES MAYOR CANDIDATES.

SEATTLE, Feb. 8.—Hiram C. Gill has been nominated by the Republicans as their candidate for Mayor. The Democrats have nominated ex-Mayor Moore.

RIVERS AND HARBORS PROVIDED FOR.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 8.—The rivers and harbors bill will carry appropriations amounting to $45,000,000.

MULES MONOPOLIZE LURLINE GREETINGS
ATKINSON PARK PACIFIC FLEET

Children's Playground Matson Liner Brings
Used As Pasture Malihinis, Mail
For Animals And Mules

Atkinson Park, the pride of "Jim" Quinn and intended as a breathing spot for the densely populated district of Kakaako and Kewalo, has become the trying place wherein an assorted delegation of mules and mule drivers themselves in a most manner after having completed a day's toil for the City and County of Honolulu.

At least this is the complaint that has been lodged with the Supervisors by Frank S. Dodge, Superintendent of the Bishop Estate. Atkinson Park was formerly opened and dedicated as a playground for children. Kakaako kid- dom is intensely cosmopolitan in its make-up and race, color or creed is seldom dragged forth as a bar for eligibility to its ranks.

What the kiddies do object to is that they are compelled to share the enclosure with a bunch of ungovernably mules. The equines are said to conduct themselves with extreme rudeness besides lifting up deep-toned voice of exhalation upon being released after a day of toil upon municipal roads.

Quinn, the instigator of public recreation grounds, and the father confessor of the citizen with a grievance against roads, bridges and parks, has been appealed to by the kiddies. The Supervisor has been asked to remove the disturbing element in the shape of horses and mules, said to belong to the city and county. The youngsters suggest that the animals be transferred to Thomas Square, Bishop Square or even to the city hall for a change of pasture.

Atkinson playground may again revert from pasture to park if the Supervisors have their way.

TWO INQUESTS AT EWA POLICE COURT

Two inquests were held at Ewa police court yesterday and both had to do with the death of children. The first inquiry was held into the death of a child named Manuel Nacemeto, aged four years. The little fellow wandered away from his home and fell into an irrigation ditch. When discovered the child was dead. A verdict of accidental death was returned by the coroner's jury.

The second inquest was into the death of a lad named Willie Silva. The boy, who was about thirteen years of age, in some way got run over by a car at Waiapahu and died from his injuries. In this case a verdict of accidental death was also returned. Deputy Sheriff Fernandez conducted the investigations, and he made his report to Sheriff Jarrett this morning.

Police Officer Parisk had a tussle with a cow this afternoon, and, although the animal put up a great fight, the experienced rancher managed to tie the snout up to a telephone post. The animal had been brought to the police station by a Japanese who claimed the animal had devoured his vegetables.

Operator Warren of the Matson Navigation Line Lurline sent parting ad- has to the United States cruisers as they steamed towards the coast, the Lurline wireless being in communication first with the cruisers Denver and Galveston, then the supply and refrigerator ship Glacier and last evening bespoke the Big Eight.

The Lurline clipped off a little from her steaming time and came down in six days and twenty hours, docking at the Matson wharf at 9 o'clock this morning.

In addition to a score of saloon passengers, the vessel brought 2400 tons of general cargo. Included in this were seven automobiles, three being for E. O. Hall & Son, two for the von Hamm-Yonitz garage and the remainder for individual importers.

On deck twenty four-footed passengers withstood the voyage in fine style. The Club stables received this number of husky and lively mules by the Lurline.

A mainland mail amounting to 90 sacks was received by the local post-office.

The Lurline has six hundred tons of cargo for Kahului and the vessel will proceed to that port within a few days to discharge the freight and take on a shipment of sugar for the mainland.

The Lurline is scheduled to sail for San Francisco on next Wednesday morning.

NEW JAPANESE
PINEAPPLE COMPANY

Articles of incorporation have been filed for the Maui Pineapple Company, the capital stock being fixed at $20,000, and there being one hundred and forty-three shareholders.

The company purposes to undertake the cultivation of extensive pineapple tracts in the vicinity of Makawao.

The officers of the corporation are J. Kunahara, F. M. Dattie, J. Onishi, K. Yokogawa, C. Tanaka, U. Nogami, M. Nishitaka.

Miss Davidson, who has charge of the section of Inter-Island Princesses in the Floral Parade, has practically completed her plans and has been having almost daily practice rides with the children who will form the mounted escort. The next ride will be held tomorrow at 4 o'clock in the afternoon. Thomas Square being the meeting place. If there are any other children with saddle horses who would like to join in the parade, Miss Davidson would be glad to see them there at that time.
